A radiant and dazzling light left this world suddenly when Sabrina Edge Eckdahl of Boerne, Texas went to be with our Lord on the morning of Wednesday, January 11 2017.

Sabrina was born to Hildegard Christina Klara Edge and Zane Gerald Edge on March 17 1962 in Nuremberg, Germany. After living all over the world while her father served in the military, the family settled in Boerne, and Sabrina attended Boerne High School, graduating in 1980. Later, she studied nursing at San Antonio College. In 1998, Sabrina combined her innate sense of taste, style and artistry with her talent for choosing and arranging beautiful décor to begin her long and successful career as an Interior Designer.

Sabrina enjoyed making the world a more beautiful place whether she was spending time with cherished family and friends or helping valued clients decorate their homes and businesses with her signature style and eye for design. Her warm Texas-sized voice and contagious laughter often announced her arrival. She enjoyed travel, loved adventure, lived for the moment, and never met a stranger.

Wherever Sabrina went, her sparkling presence lingered, and her unparalleled style and superbly unique dress code were never forgotten. Her caring and kind-hearted soul mixed perfectly with her gritty no-nonsense attitude and quick wit, her beautiful smile a blessing to everyone she encountered.

Sabrina had a great love for animals and never met a horse she didn't like. Spending time with horses brought her tremendous joy, and she took pride in caring for them. Members of her extended pet family include dogs Siouxle, Tehya, Kiowa, Cayenne and Shawnee, horses Tonka, Ziggy and Peanut, Fergie the Ferret, Piglet the cat, and last but not least, Peanut 2 the feral kitty.

Sabrina is preceded in death by her beloved mother, Hildegard Edge. She is survived by her father, Zane Edge and her husband Kevin Eckdahl. She leaves behind numerous cousins and many wonderful friends.
