As a child, Billy and her sister May attended school in San Antonio, Houston and Corpus Christi. Billy’s father, Bill Myers was able to keep his job at Greyhound Bus Lines during the Great Depression. Throughout the years, music was important in their family, singing while riding in the car and singalongs while gathering around the piano. She continued the family tradition by hosting singalongs in her home for her friends.

In 1960, Billy began working at the Kendall County Clerk’s Office and in 1966, she gained employment at Guadalupe Valley Telephone Coop until her retirement in 1988. She had many friends and attended the retired ladies luncheons after retirement. As a member of the Kendalia Community Club, the Kendalia Ladies Club and the Kendalia Volunteer Fire Department she sought to serve her community.
