CINDY REED

Cindy Reed passed away during the early hours of Sunday, Feb. 9, 2003, after a five-year battle with cancer. She was at home in Dripping Springs in the care of her husband of 37 years, Robert A. (Bob) Reed Jr.

She loved her church, her family and friends. She never lost faith and was incredibly strong through the many challenges she endured. And even in her final hours, Cindy prayed for her husband and others.

Cindy was born Feb. 17, 1943, in New Braunfels. She grew up on a ranch near Kendalia with her mother and father, Gertrude and Beno Sattler, and her grandmother, Tille Stahl. They were a very close family. Cindy graduated valedictorian of Blanco High School in 1961 and continued her education at Durham Business College.

After graduation, she was employed by the Texas Highway Department, where she met the love of her life, Bob Reed. Cindy married Bob Oct. 23, 1965, and became a full-time housewife.

Cindy was very active in her church and community, and always found time for others. Cindy was preceded in death by her mother and father. She is survived by her husband, her extended family, dear friends Tom and Wilma Boyd, many cousins, and her Emmaus brothers and sisters. The family would like to thank Dr. Brenda Towell for her kindness, loving care and prayerful support.

Visitation was held at noon and services were at 1 p.m. Tuesday at Trinity Lutheran Church in Blanco. Burial was at the Weidner family cemetery, Spring Branch. Memorial contributions may be made to the Trinity Lutheran Church Building Fund, Blanco.
